

Keith Block, MD: Life over Cancer—Achieving A Survivor’s Edge

Keith Block, MD, is medical-scientific director of the Block Center for Integrative Cancer Treatment in Illinois. The Block Center website says: “The care provided a Block Center patient embodies the highest level of conventional medicine and integrates those conventional protocols with advanced complementary therapies that address the physical, nutritional, psychosocial, and spiritual aspects of healing and recovery.” Dr. Block is the author of Life Over Cancer: The Block Center Program for Integrative Cancer Care.

- 01:25 Introduction: achieving a survivor’s edge
- 02:04 Assessing the cancer environment and effecting change.
- 07:38 Block Center Integrative Care Program
- 08:31 Block Center treatment plans and outcomes
- 16:20 Nutritional therapies
- 17:00 Integrative survival rates from Block Center